4 The bye-laws proposed by the Nelamangala Municipality do not provide for the preparation of vaccination statistics and for the assistance to be given by the Municipality in the preparation of registers, &c. The Municipalities of Magadi and Channapatna do provide for the preparation of such statistics But the methods proposed and the registers intended to be kept are not uniform. As a sample the bye-laws of the Sankere Municipality published in the Mysore Gazette of the 21st April 1910, may be adopted The bye-laws proposed for the Channapatna Municipality

The Vice-Chairman President may be requested to have the bye-laws of all the municipalities in the District drawn up on the lines of the bye-laws of the Madras (or of the K. G. F.) Municipality and Company in the English Language. The draft in the files may therefore be approved.

5 The draft bye-laws under the Vaccination Regulations framed by the Mysore City Municipality are under consideration. (Vide Mul File No. 97 of 1909) Those framed by the Bangalore Municipal Council have been sent to the Sanitary Comr. for favour of remarks. The passing of these bye-laws may, it seems, be awaited and the President requested to have framed similar bye-laws, with the necessary modifications, if any.
